

A Satellite Symposium to be held at the 15th Congress of the European Hematology Association

Bridging the Gap in the Management of Hematologic Malignancies

Thursday, 10 June 2010 / 10.45 – 12.45

Chair:
Hagop Kantarjian, MD
M. D. Anderson Cancer Center
Houston, Texas, United States

Barcelona

The Gran Via Conference Center, Fira de Barcelona
Hall C

Supported by Celgene Corporation, Cephalon Oncology and Novartis Oncology

Bridging the Gap in the Management of Hematologic Malignancies

Hall C, Barcelona, Spain, 10 June 2010, 10.45 – 12.45

SCIENTIFIC AGENDA

- 10.45 Welcome and introduction
Hagop Kantarjian, MD
- 10.50 Novel approaches to the management of Hodgkin lymphoma
Anas Younes, MD
- 11.05 Interactive clinical scenario: Hodgkin lymphoma
Anas Younes, MD
- 11.15 What's new and exciting in the management of newly diagnosed multiple myeloma
Maria Mateos, MD
- 11.35 Advances in relapsed multiple myeloma
Sagar Lonial, MD
- 11.55 Pearls and pitfalls in the management of myelodysplastic syndromes (MDS)
Aristoteles Giagounidis, MD, PhD
- 12.10 Interactive clinical scenario: MDS
Aristoteles Giagounidis, MD, PhD
- 12.20 Emerging options in the management of follicular lymphoma
Mathias Rummel, MD, PhD
- 12.35 Interactive clinical scenario: Follicular lymphoma
Martin Dreyling, MD, PhD
- 12.45 Concluding remarks and adjournment
Hagop Kantarjian, MD

Chair

Hagop Kantarjian, MD
M. D. Anderson Cancer Center
Houston, Texas, United States

Faculty

Martin Dreyling, MD, PhD
University Hospital Grosshadern
Munich, Germany

Aristoteles Giagounidis, MD, PhD
St Johannes Hospital
Duisburg, Germany

Sagar Lonial, MD
Winship Cancer Institute
Atlanta, Georgia, United States

Maria Mateos, MD
University Hospital Salamanca
Salamanca, Spain

Mathias Rummel, MD, PhD
University of Giessen
Giessen, Germany

Anas Younes, MD
M. D. Anderson Cancer Center
Houston, Texas, United States

