

Triple-Negative Breast Cancer: On the Pathway to Better Outcomes

ESMO Milan 2010 Industry
Satellite Symposium

8 October 2010
15.00 – 16.30

Fiera Milano Conference Centre
The Green Room, Floor -1
Milan, Italy

This meeting is supported by sanofi aventis

Because health matters

Faculty

Ian Smith, MD (Chair)

*Royal Marsden Hospital
London, United Kingdom*

Nadia Harbeck, MD, PhD

*University of Cologne
Cologne, Germany*

John Pippin, MD

*US Oncology
Baylor Sammons Cancer Center
Dallas, Texas, United States*

Giuseppe Viale, MD, PhD

*European Institute of Oncology and University of Milan
Milan, Italy*

Agenda

- 15.00 Welcome, introduction, and demographics
Ian Smith, MD
- 15.05 Clinical opinion poll question
- 15.10 Understanding the biology of triple-negative breast cancer (TNBC)
Giuseppe Viale, MD, PhD
- 15.25 Panel commentary
- 15.30 Clinical opinion poll question
- 15.35 Triple-negative breast cancer: What we know and what we don't know
Nadia Harbeck, MD, PhD
- 15.50 Panel commentary
- 15.55 Clinical opinion poll question
- 16.00 PARP inhibition:
Why it works in TNBC
John Pippin, MD
- 16.20 Panel commentary
- 16.25 Take home messages and future directions
Ian Smith, MD

Target Audience

This educational activity is designed for medical oncologists, radiation oncologists, surgical oncologists, pathologists and other healthcare providers involved and/or interested in the management of patients with breast cancer.

Location

Fiera Milano City
Entrance: Viale Lodovico Scarampo
20145 Milan, Italy
www.fieramilanocongressi.it

Room : Green room 1+2, Floor -1

Register Online

Register online at www.prIMEoncology.org
Preregistration is not required for this event, however space is limited.